

Matthew McCullough

Principal

Matt.McCullough@findley.com • 419.327.4180

Matt is a Principal in the firm's Health and Group Benefits Practice. Prior to joining the firm in 1997, he held a management position with a large banking and financial institution and was a senior associate with a national insurance and investment brokerage firm.

He has significant experience working with a diverse group of clients to evaluate managed care networks and health care claims and utilization patterns. In addition, clients appreciate his expertise in vendor selection and performance management.

Matt received his BS from Miami University.

