Larry is a Managing Consultant in the firm's Actuarial Services Practice who joined the firm in 2017. He works with clients to administer and design defined benefit, defined contribution and other postemployment benefit plans. Larry is a proactive consultant who effectively explains technical actuarial concepts to nontechnical people.

Larry formulates plan design alternatives helping clients understand the value of current versus alternate retirement plan programs. He is also experienced in implementing risk transfer strategies for clients' retirement programs including plan terminations, terminated vested cash outs, and retiree annuity purchases.

With more than twenty years of experience, Larry is a key relationship manager for several Findley's clients. Prior to joining Findley, Larry was a Principal for a national consulting firm.

Larry is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries (FSA), a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries (MAAA), and an Enrolled Actuary (EA). He received his BA from Borromeo College of Ohio and his BS from Cleveland State University.
