

Cory Panning Consultant

Cory.Panning@findley.com • 419.327.4190

Cory is a Consultant in the Health and Group Benefits Practice with a primary focus on population health and strategic employer well-being. Cory also assists the Human Capital Management team, supporting all areas of the practice (communications and change management, organizational performance, compensation, and benefits).

He joined Findley in 2017, following six years of developing and managing wellness programs for clients.

Cory applies his experience to help organizations deliver effective well-being strategies that impact individual health and organizational performance. Cory is professionally trained in compression planning which is a technique used to develop comprehensive financial well-being strategies, among others.

Cory received his BS from Bowling Green State University.

